

QUESTIONNAIRE

OF

MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY / LATIN IN MEDICINE

for Educational Qualification degree: master of dental medicine

Speciality: DENTAL MEDICINE, English language education

First year

1. Alphabet. Pronunciation.
 - a) Peculiarities of Latin pronunciation.
2. Quantity of Vowels. Syllables. Quantity Of Syllables. Accent.
3. Elements of the contemporary medical terminology.
 - a) Nouns
 - b) Adjectives
4. Inflection. Cases used in the medical terminology.
5. Dictionary entry of nouns. Stem and base.
6. Composed words.
7. Basic characteristics of anatomical and pharmaceutical terminology.
8. First declension. Suffixes.
 - a) Nouns and adjectives.
9. Clinical terminology.
 - a) Basic Greek roots, suffixes and prefixes used in clinical terminology.
10. Second declension.
 - a) Nouns of masculine gender.
 - b) Adjectives of masculine gender.
11. Nouns of neuter gender of the second declension.
 - a) Adjectives of neuter gender of the second declension.
12. First and second declension adjectives.
13. Diagnoses of the First and Second Declension.
14. Third declension: general characteristic.
15. Third declension consonant stems.
16. Third declension pure i-stems.
17. Mixed i-stems.
18. Use of suffixes and prepositions with nouns of the third declension.
19. Third declension adjectives.
 - a) Present active participle.
20. Diagnoses of the Third Declension.
21. Comparison of adjectives.
 - a) Regular comparison of adjectives.
 - b) Irregular comparison of adjectives.

22. Fourth declension.
 - a) nouns of masculine gender.
 - b) nouns of neuter gender.
23. Numerals and their use in medical terminology.
24. Fifth declension.
25. Diagnoses of the Fourth and Fifth Declensions.
26. Latin prepositions and their use as prefixes.
27. Greek and latin equivalents of colors.
28. Some adverbs and verbs used in medical terminology.
29. Medical prescriptions.
 - a) Prescription writing – principal parts of a written prescription
 - b) Prescription abbreviations.
30. Types and forms of medicinal preparations.
31. Key terms of:
 - a) Cavitas cranii. Cavitas oris.
 - b) Systema digestorium.
32. Some abbreviations used in medical terminology.
 - a) Some Latin abbreviations used in English.
32. Latin sayings and phrases.

The acknowledgement and assessment of the accomplished results is done by a final written test.